

CONTENTS

Introduction

Zdzisława Dacko-Pikiewicz	9
Henryk Raczkowski	11

Part I

Understanding Contemporary Terrorism and Counterterrorism – Selected Issues Sebastian Wojciechowski	15
---	----

1. What is terrorism? How should one define terrorism?	15
2. What makes it difficult to define/describe terrorism? Why are there so many definitions of terrorism and why the international community has failed to work out one universal definition?	17
3. Why the universal definition of terrorism is necessary?	22
4. What are the main reasons of terrorism? What makes terrorism escalating?	28
5. What is the crucial motivation of terrorists' activity?	32
6. What is the profile of a terrorist?	35
7. What is the profile of a terrorist organization?	42
8. What are main consequences of terrorism?	45
9. What is the characteristic of modern terrorist attacks?	48
10. How does the model of modern terrorism combating look like?	50

Part 2

Al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula (AQAP) as the exemplification of the global threat of terrorism Adrian K. Siadkowski	57
1. Introduction	57
2. AQAP – creation and reactivation	59
3. Political transition in Yemen – the fall of Saleh’s regime and strengthening of AQAP	62
4. Influence of economic factors on activities of AQAP in Yemen	68
5. Religious fundamentalism and cultural orthodoxy – factors conducive to AQAP activity	71
6. Old problems – new players – a global threat	78
7. “INSPIRE” – propaganda or the real threat?	79
8. The Response from the West	82
9. Summary	88
Bibliography	93
Notes of authors	99