

Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations	11
Preface	13

Foundations

CHAPTER 1
Legal Philosophy and Animal Law
1. Law and the picture of the world	19
2. Presuppositions of law	21
3. The philosophy of law and juridical humanism	25

CHAPTER 2
Personhood

1. Persons and subjects of law	31
2. Animals and sentience	32
3. Sentience and its ethical implications	35
4. Non-personal subjects and law	37
5. Law and the subjecthood of animals	40
6. Towards the non-personal subjecthood of animals	45

CHAPTER 3Suffering

1. Legal terminology	47
2. Pain and distress	50
3. Suffering	53
4. Harm and its kinds	55

CHAPTER 4Interests

1. Needs, interests, and wants	59
2. Interests and moral duties	62
3. Interests and law	65
4. Interests and legal protection of animals	68

CHAPTER 5Morality

1. Public morality	71
2. Positive and critical social morality	73
3. Public morality and animals	75
4. The moral rights of animals	78
5. Interests, moral rights, and law	82

DimensionsCHAPTER 6*The Systemic Nature of Law

1. The legal system and its elements	87
2. Law as a system of norms	88
3. Legal institutions	89
4. Animal law as part of the legal system	92
5. The problem of the constitutional basis for animal law	95

CHAPTER 7Dereification

1. The concept of deregulation	99
2. The deregulation clause	100
3. Deregulation and private law	102
4. Deregulation and criminal law and procedure	107
5. Deregulation and administrative law	110

CHAPTER 8Killing

1. Animal life as a legally protected good	115
2. A relative ban on animal killing	117

CHAPTER 9Exploitation

1. The ethical problem of animal exploitation	121
2. Exploitation of farm animals	125
3. Exploitation of experimental animals	128
4. Other forms of animal exploitation	131

CHAPTER 10Harassment

1. The rise of anti-cruelty legislation	133
2. Contemporary legal institution of animal abuse	135

CHAPTER 11Execution

1. Supervision of compliance with animal law	139
2. Cooperation with NGOs	140
3. (In)effectiveness of animal law enforcement mechanisms	144

Principles

CHAPTER 12

Principles of Animal Law

1. Principles in law	149
2. Validity of legal principles	152
3. Animal law and its principles	154

CHAPTER 13

Principle of the Protection of Life

1. The value of animal life and the law	159
2. Prohibition on the killing of animals	161
3. Other provisions based on the recognition of the value of animal life	163
4. The scope and rank of the principle of the protection of animal life	166

CHAPTER 14

Principle of Animal Welfare Protection

1. Animal welfare and animal dereification	169
2. General dereification clauses	170
3. Anti-cruelty laws	172
4. Regulations establishing standards for the treatment of animals	174
5. Animal welfare and other legal values	176

CHAPTER 15

Principle of Special Protection for Animals Closer to Humans

1. Differentiation in the legal protection of animals	179
2. Pets	181
3. Animals used for scientific and educational purposes	183
4. Farm animals	186
5. Animals used for entertainment and free-living animals	188

CHAPTER 16Principle of Double Responsibility

1. Individual liability for the animal	191
2. Collective (social) responsibility	194
3. Public education	197

CHAPTER 17Principle of Relative Respect for the Economic and Cultural Rationale behind Animal Exploitation

1. Values limiting the protection of animal life and welfare	201
2. Direct references to values that limit animal protection	202
3. Values justifying animal exploitation as presuppositions of animal legislation	204
4. Primacy of the protection of animal life and welfare	206

EpilogueQuaestiones pro futuro

1. Evolution, morality, and ethics	213
2. Naturalistic fallacy and moralistic fallacy	215
3. Law and ethical progress	218
4. The impact of law on morality	227
5. Progress in animal law	233
6. A revolution to come?	243

Bibliography	247
-------------------------------	-----